- 4. Title Upon Dissolution In the event of the dissolution of the Association, title to all real property shall vest in the abutting lot owners as at common law, subject, however, to the same easements and rights of use by the residents of Indigo Unit #8 as existed prior to dissolution. Upon dissolution of the Association, all money and other personal property of the Association shall, as may be practicable, be distributed in the same manner as votes are apportioned among lot or parcel owners.

ARTICLE VII MEMBERSHIP AND VOTING RIGHTS IN THE ASSOCIATION

The qualifications of the members, the manner of their admission to membership and termination of such membership, and voting by members shall be as stated in the Declaration at Article XIV, and as follows:

Membership Every person or entity who is a record owner of a fee simple interest or undivided interest in fee simple in any lot or dwelling unit which is subject to assessment by the Association shall be a member of the Association; provided, that any such person or entity who holds such interest merely as a security for the performance of an obligation shall not be a member. The members in this Association shall also become members and pay the dues levied by a Master Homeowners Association such as Indigo Property Owners Association, Inc. which may or may not be formed as a Florida Corporation not for profit, if and when such entity is formed.

classes of voting memberhsip: The Association shall have two (2)

Class A Class A members shall be every person or entity who is a record owner of a fee simple or undivided fee simple interest in any lot or dwelling unit which is subject to assessment by the Association. Class A members shall be entitled to one (1) vote for each lot or dwelling unit and in no event shall more than one (1) vote be cast with respect to any lot or dwelling unit.

Class B The Class B member shall be the Developer, as that term is defined in the Declaration. The Class B member shall have seven (7) votes for each lot or dwelling unit owned by said Class B member, provided however, that notwithstanding any provision in the Declaration, these Articles or the By-Laws to the contrary, the Developer shall have the right to elect a majority of the Board of Directors of the Association until such time as the Developer no longer holds the title to any portion of the Property known as Indigo

Unit #8 or any additional Property brought under the provisions of this Association.

The Class B membership shall cease and become converted to Class A membership on the twentieth (20) anniversary of the date of the Declaration. The Class B member shall, however, retain the right to assign to the Association at any time, and in its discretion, the voting rights it holds in the Association by virtue of its status as a Class B member. Upon such written assignment, the Class B membership shall cease and become converted to Class A membership.

Quorum and Voting Authority Save and except for the specific quorum requirements set forth in the Declaration the quorum for any action of the Association shall be the presence at the meeting of the members of the Association, or of proxies entitled to cast more than fifty percent (50%) of all the votes of both classes of membership taken together. A vote of the majority of the quorum as determined hereinabove shall determine the action of the Association. Furthermore, if the required quorum is not forthcoming at any meeting, another meeting may be called, subject to the requirement that written notice of said meeting be sent to all members at least ten (10) days in advance of the meeting setting forth the purpose of the meeting. The required quorum at any such subsequent meeting shall be one-half (1/2) of the required quorum at the preceding meeting, provided that no such subsequent meeting shall be held more than sixty (60) days following the preceding meeting.

Termination of Membership Immediately upon the divestment of a member's interest in a lot, regardless of the means by which such ownership may be divested, such owner's membership shall terminate. Any successor owner shall be entitled to membership after provided written notice to the Association of such ownership interest. At the request of the Association, the successor owner shall provide the Association with a certified copy of the instrument evidencing his ownership interest.

Interest of Members in Assets of Association The interest of a member in the funds and assets of the Association cannot be assigned, hypothecated or transferred in any manner except as an appurtenance to his unit. The funds and assets of the Association belong solely to the Association subject to the limitation that the same be expended, held or used for the benefit of the membership and for the purposes authorized herein, in the Declaration and the By-Laws which may be hereafter adopted.

ARTICLE IX DIRECTORS

Section 1. Management by Directors The property, business and affairs of the Association shall be managed buy a Board of Directors, which shall consist of not less than three (3) nor more than ten (10) persons. A majority of the Directors in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The By-Laws shall provide for meeting of directors, including an annual meeting.

Section 2. Original Board of Directors The names and addresses of the first Board of Directors of the Association, appointed by the Developer, shall be as follows:

Section 3. Election of Members of Board of Directors Except for the first Board of Directors, directors shall be elected by the members of the Association at the Annual Meeting of the membership as provided by the By-Laws of the Association, and the
By-Laws may provide for the method of voting in the election and for removal from office of directors. All directors shall be members of the Association residing in Indigo Unit #8 development or shall be authorized representatives, officers, or employees of corporation members of the Association, provided that such limitations shall not apply to directors appointed by the Developer.

Section 4. Duration of Office Subject to the limitations contained in Article VII, the first Board of Directors shall hold office until the number of Class A votes exceed the number of Class B votes and therafter until qualified successors are duly elected and have taken office. Except for the first Board of Directors, members elected to the Board of Directors shall hold office until they resign or until the next succeeding annual meeting of members, and thereafter until qualified successors are duly elected and have taken office.

Section 5. Vacancies If a director elected by the general membership shall for any reason cease to be a director, the remaining directors so elected may elect a successor to fill the vacancy for the balance of the unexpired term.

ARTICLE X OFFICERS

Section 1. Officers Provided For The Association shall have a President, a Vice President, a Secretary and a Treasurer, and such other officers as the Board of Directors may from time to time elect. One person may simultaneously hold two (2) offices, except President and Secretary.

Section 2. Election and Appointment of Officers
Subject to the limitations contained in Article VII, the first officers of the Association shall serve until the number of Class A votes exceeds the number of Class B votes and until qualified successors are fully elected and have taken office. Except for the first officers, the officers of the Association, in accordance with any applicable provisions of the By-Laws, shall be elected by the Board of Directors for terms of one (1) year and until qualified successors are fully elected and have taken office. The By-Laws may provide for the method of voting in the election, for the removal from office of officers, for filling vacancies, and for the duties of the officers. The President and Vice President shall be directors; other officers may or may not be directors of the Association. If the office of President shall become vacant for any reason, or if the President shall be unable or unavailable to act, any Vice President shall automatically succeed to the office or peform its duties and exercise its powers. If an office other than that of the President shall become vacant for any reason, the Board of Directors may elect or appoint an individual to fill such vacancy.

Section 3. First Officers The names and addresses of the first officers of the Association, and until successors are duly elected and have taken office, shall be as follows:
